

ACROSTICS about PALANGA

Class IIA

Summer

Sitting outside
Under a tree
Making happiness
Making memories
Enjoying summer
Relaxing fun!

Justė Bogužaitė

Darkness

Dim the light
Around us
Retreating of the Sun
Knowledge of the sunrise
Not comforting at all
Each must find their Shelter
Seeing times of darkness through

Edgaras Juodris

Holidays

How we ran into the dunes and swallowed sand
Others in the morning, drinking the cold dew from the trees
Look, we started gnawing without even making a mistake
I look back, but I know I won't come back
Days, when spring again kisses rowan and fuzz
And when the wind ceases and joy swells over the soul and the fields
Yours chest worry will take in the expanses of dunes
So come back to me and say, "This land is beautiful to me."

Eglė Bracaitė

Palanga

Patient, understanding towards others
Artistic, you create things of beauty
Limitless, once you set your heart on something
Affable, so easy to like
Neat, carefully organized
Golden, you glow of goodness
Altruistic, putting others before self

Restaurant

Ready to have a snack?
Everywhere you look you see food
So which table are going to book?
Tired of walking all the day?
At a restaurant your problems will go away
Unless you see that check and run away
Restaurants can be nice
And get ready for some spice
Now get a drink, and get some ice
That feels really nice

Aistis Miežetis

Beach

Before I go to sleep
Every day I go to the beach
Again and again I watch the stars
Carrying the light of the dark
How lovely.

Sand

Sun is shining in the sky
And the beach is crowded
Now I'm so sad
Drowning alone in the sand

Eivilė Mockutė

Sand

So many footsteps on it
At night they disappear
Nobody knows where they go
Dancing in the wind

The sea

Treasures that lay below it
House to a lot of life
Everyone loves it
Seagulls make it alive
Everyone's favorite it becomes
At the sunrise

Aistis Miežetis

Tourists

Tourists come by and leave
Our little town near the sea
Umbrellas are left back at home
Realizing they are here all alone
I hope we will enjoy
Sunny days and even more
Today is about happiness
So forget all about the sadness.

Parks

People walking
Around the park
Remembering what needs to be done
Knowing that they have time
Silently enjoying their free time

Eivilė Mockutė

Ugnė Norbutaitė

Ears are hearing the ocean
Arms are touching the sand

I'll see the moonlight in the night
Do the waves touch the sky?
Ending the day with you by my side.

Now I can't see the sunlight, but I can see the moon
So much gold I see in the water
Evening is getting colder and colder
The sun wants to replace the moon every morning

Sunset is shining like stars in the sky
Even in childhood I believed I can fly
